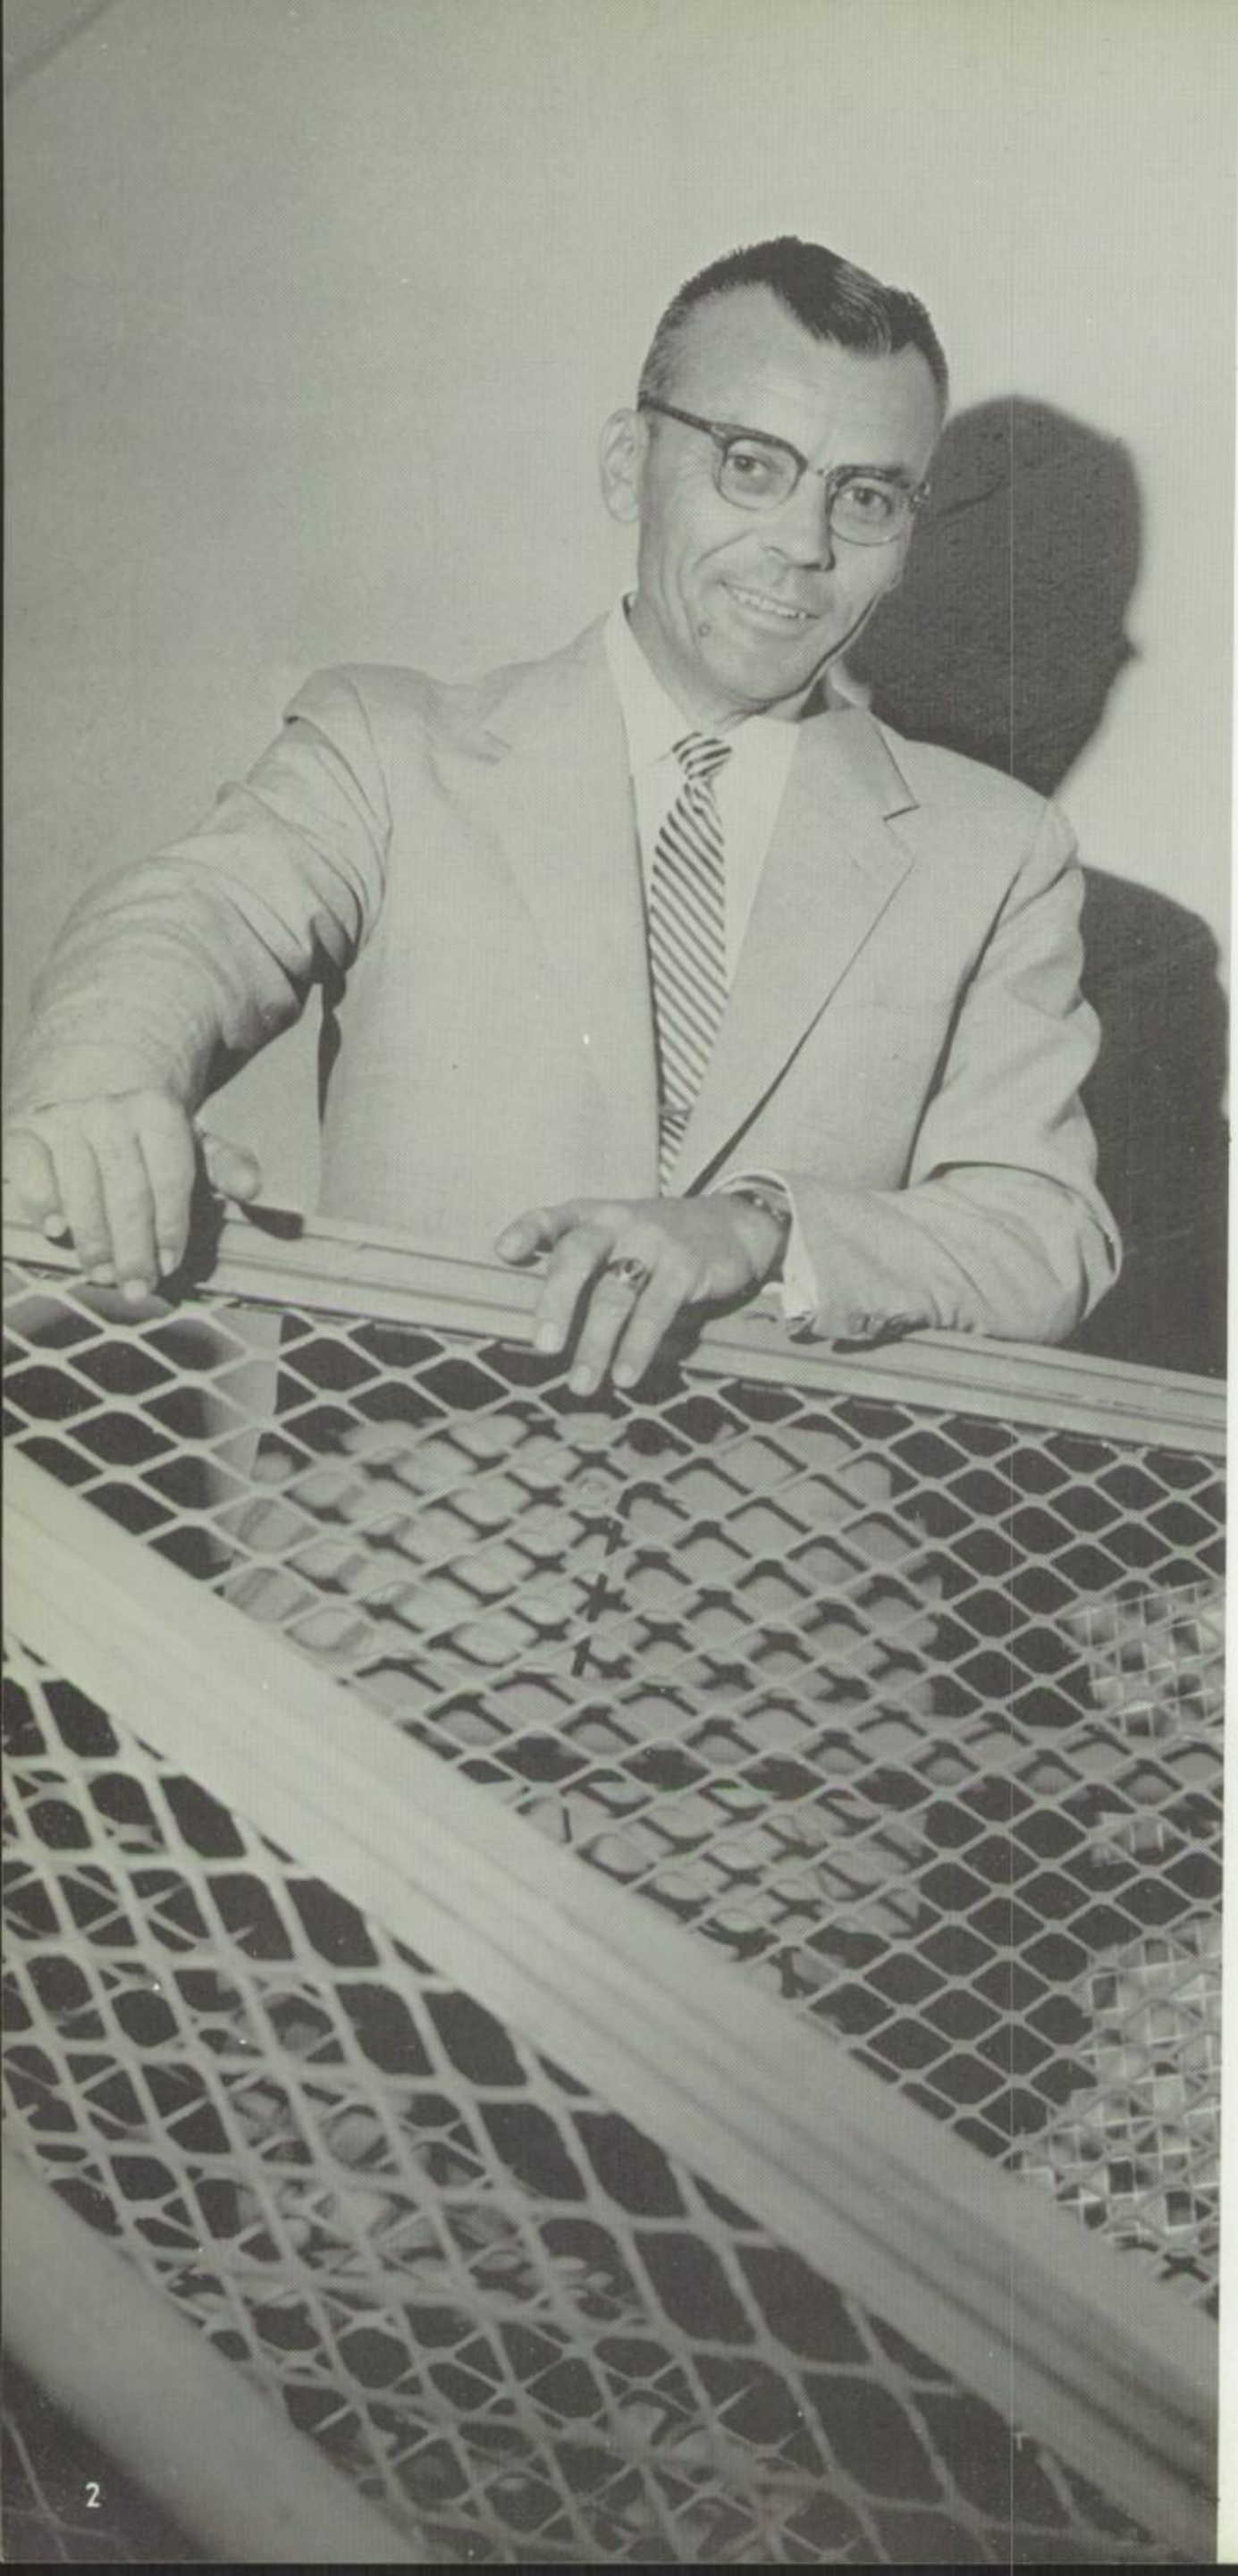
VOLUME XI



We dedicate the '63 Howard Shield to a man who is himself dedicated . . .

Mr. Omar Jones, our principal, is deserving of the respect which he receives from the students at Howard. His warm devotion to our school and his sincere interest in the students have made him a friend as well as a respected leader.

We will leave this "campus so blest" with the fond memories of our school days but we will never forget Mr. Jones, who has played so vital a role in our lives.

We, the class of 1963, extend our best wishes to our principal as he leads Howard High to new accomplishments and realized goals.

IN APPRECIATION

TO

MISS MARION FERGUSON,

We will always remember your unceasing assistance and guidance during our years at Howard. You have always been willing to help us with our problems.

Each of us has his own reason for remembering you. The Latin class will miss eating those doughnuts. Student Council members will be mindful of your advice in future years. Chronic absentees will still be waiting for those telephone calls, and the lobby loiterers will always remember "extra hours."

Each of us sincerely extends his deepest thanks and best wishes for the future. We hope that throughout the years to come you will remember our class with fond memories.

Sincerely,

CLASS OF '63

TO

MR. ARNOLD G. HARMS,

We wish to express our appreciation for your assistance, guidance, patience, and thought. Your efforts during the past three years not only have truly enhanced our class but also have personally harvested many friendships. Your untiring, cheerful, cooperative service as a Senior class advisor has helped us, the Class of '63, to have a successful year.

We will ever remember your classes for your army experiences, attendance banner, bulletin boards, and jovial personality, "you know?".

With this appreciation the Senior Class extends to you our wishes for a golden future.

Sincerely,

CLASS OF '63

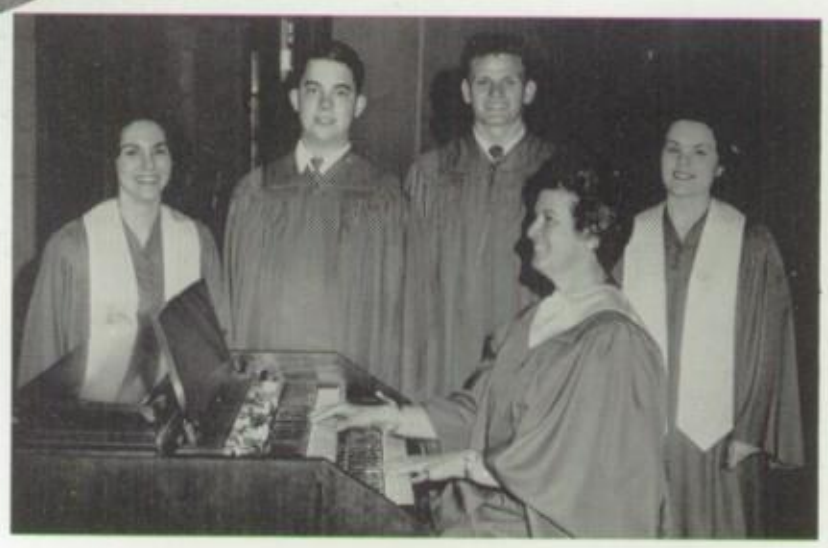
CHORUS

Over the years, the Mixed Chorus, ably directed by Miss Eleanor Dries, has become a vital part of Howard's curriculum. One hundred thirty voices combined to present to the public a musical program entitled "A Carousel of Songs"—a highlight of the year. This production was complete with costumes, as well as beautiful scenery, designed by the Art Department. The chorus also performed at assemblies and orientation and sponsored the spring Music Mart.



Participants in the Maryland State Chorus are, l. to r., Gayle Gray, Bernard Gardner, Ed Harris, Elaine Oland, Sponsor Miss Dries.

"To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education."—such is the aim of the Parent-Teacher Association. The Howard High P.T.A. has strived diligently to meet this goal.

Mr. Nelson Tharp, 1962-63 president, was ably assisted by the Executive Vice President, Mr. Phillip Anderson, and the Second Vice President, Mr. Omar Jones. Other officers were Mrs. Joseph Neubauer, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Jules Medwin, Corresponding Secretary; and Mr. Fred Fischer, Treasurer.

This year's program theme was an "Educational Count-Down;" "Choosing a College," "Employment Problems Facing Our Youth," and "Military Obligations and Military Life" were among the topics discussed by the several speakers at P.T.A. meetings.

"Parent-Teacher Conference Night" offered an opportunity for parents to talk with teachers in the classrooms. It was not only a time to discuss problems, but a time to "get acquainted."

P.T.A. members were entertained during the year by the Howard band and the chorus. The annual fashion show given by the Home Economics department was held at the May meeting.

Hard-working parents and teachers were responsible for much of the success of Homecoming. Despite the discouraging rain, one could see loyal mothers rushing into the school with donations for the bazaar. Other parents worked untiringly selling articles and preparing the delicious dinner.

The P.T.A. is thus an important part of Howard High. It provides the necessary co-operation between Howard's teachers and the parents of its students.

BOOSTERS

Officers for '62-'63 are President, Mr. Ron Tilgner; Vice President, Mr. Jack Messner; Secretary, Mrs. Helen Lanahan; and Treasurer, Mr. Jack DeGrange.

Backed all the way by the Boosters, Howard saw the completion of the newly-lighted stadium, and first-class baseball diamond. These parents worked many long hours for the benefit of the school and we owe them sincere thanks.

STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS: Vice President Fred Fischer, Secretary

REPRESENTATIVES

The Student Council made their annual contribution to society. They played Santa Claus and Easter Bunny to the Marine Hospital. They played truant officers for missing library books and accountants in adding the point system. They sent officers to the state convention and presided over the regional Student Council. They were organizers and affiliators of Homecoming. The Student Council is a body of thinkers, and more important, a group of people who carry through these ideas.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

OFFICERS: Vice President: Jeff Jacobs, President: Tim Wolbert, Secretary: Diane Blankinship

The school's most honored group, the National Honor Society, was kept busy before Christmas decorating the offices, placing flowers on the teachers' lunch tables, and tutoring students. Following exams there was a ceremony to induct new members into the society. These deserving students were selected for this high honor on the bases of scholarship, character, service, and leadership.

In Spring, those members with green thumbs attempted to bring beauty to the Honor's Court, while others with creative genius published Howard's first literary magazine—"The Graphite Graveyard." A farewell picnic given by the junior members ended a successful year for an organization that is usually inactive in most schools.

A new attraction at Howard shared by the Student Council and the Honor Society, is the Honor's Court.

G.A.A.

This year was an extremely busy and very successful one for the Girls' Athletic Association. Among its activities were: a complete intramural and tournament program, a "clean-up the field" project, erection of a fireplace, partial organizing of field day, and the giving of a trophy to the class winner, the awarding of scholarship, the orientation of presenting the library with a good sports book yearly and the sponsoring of several clinics.

The G.A.A. meets periodically throughout the year.

B.A.A.

The Boys' Athletic Association helped the G.A.A. and the Student Council in planning Field Day activities, as well as arranging the schedules of the teams. They also aided the Howard High Booster in making a first-class baseball diamond. The payment of the towel service fee entitles a boy to membership. Members had a very enjoyable year.

The Boys' Athletic Association officers for '62-'63 are, L. to R.: Secretary, Gary Prochaska; President, Ed Kasemeyer; Vice President, Denny Lanahan; and Treasurer David Poist.

Volleyball is the prominent endeavor of the B.A.A.

The Future Teachers of America, under the direction of Miss Margaret Bowers and Mrs. Catherine Wheat, is one of the most active clubs at Howard. The group's annual initiation of new members proved to be an amusing beginning for 1962-1963. Club members trimmed the traditional Christmas tree in the foyer. Margaret Seidler and Bill Morice were announced "Mr. and Miss Irresistible" at the FTA Shipwreck Dance.

Junior and Senior members observed teachers at the Ellicott City Junior High and neighboring elementary schools. Fifteen of the group attended the Maryland State FTA Convention this year. Two scholarships for graduation members were awarded at the 1963 graduation.

The Future Nurses of America is a club to stimulate interest in the nursing profession. During the school year the group sponsors the Snowball Dance and the Variety Show, as well as several field trips to nursing homes and hospitals. The members also make favors for service hospitals. A special committee spent much time and effort arranging the sick room in good order and then maintaining its cleanliness.

The FNA represented Howard well at the State Convention; they captured four out of the six offices. The Senior members were honored at the annual FNA banquet, which was held at Gaskin's Steak House.

CLASS SONG

We've loved our school days
At Howard High
You'll hold our fond mem'ries
Till the end of Time.

Our Howard High School
Keep us in your prayers
Help to guide our footsteps
Though we're everywhere.

But Life calls us on,
all our fortunes to win.
Still we'll keep in our hearts
all the things that have been.

We must leave thee, Howard,
Gracious and kind
Knowledge is the treasure
The key now we must find.

But Life calls us on
all our fortunes to win.
Still we'll keep as a guide
all the things that have been.

Now we are leaving
Teachers and friends
Heading for our future
Will we meet again?

MOTTO

Knowledge is the treasure, but practice is the key to it.

ACTIVITIES

Our extracurricular activities reflect Howard students' undying school spirit, talents, and varied interests. This school year has been spotted with many successful different functions.

"Mixing" is a Howard tradition.

The royal dance.

The turkey dinner was enjoyed by all.

Homecoming this year was arranged like a jig-saw puzzle due to the bad weather.

Floats were seen at Howard for the first time.

Majorettes and new uniforms honor the queen.

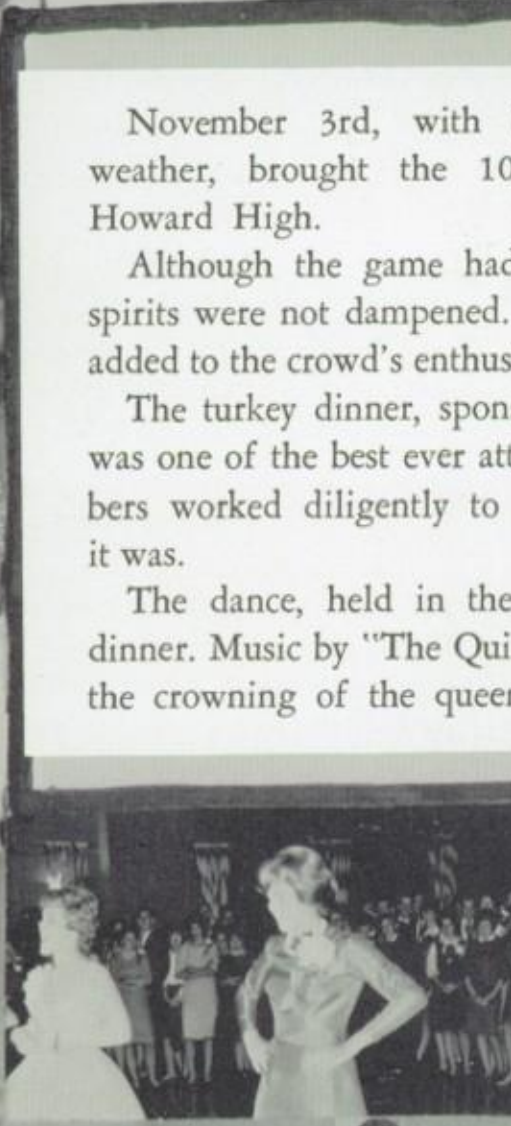
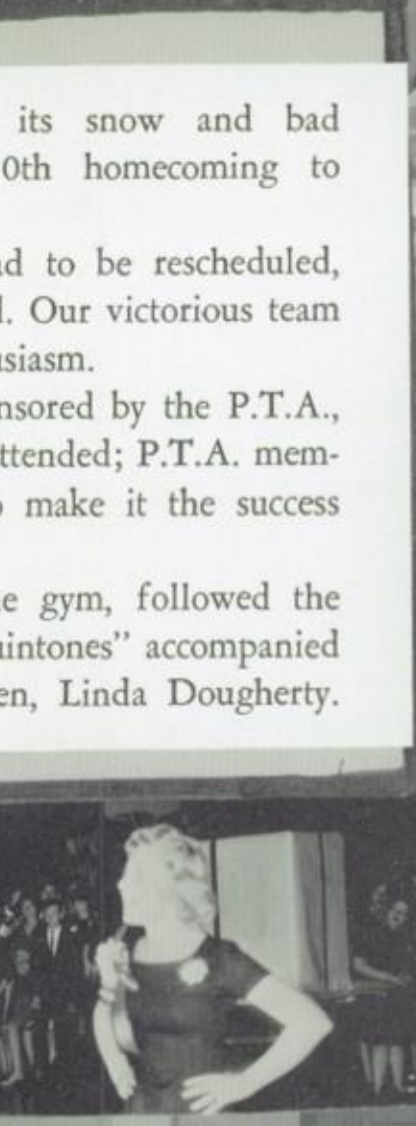
November 3rd, with its snow and bad weather, brought the 10th homecoming to Howard High.

Although the game had to be rescheduled, spirits were not dampened. Our victorious team added to the crowd's enthusiasm.

The turkey dinner, sponsored by the P.T.A., was one of the best ever attended; P.T.A. members worked diligently to make it the success it was.

The dance, held in the gym, followed the dinner. Music by "The Quintones" accompanied the crowning of the queen, Linda Dougherty.





WELCOME DANCE

Old friends and smiling faces were seen everywhere.

The Limbo, a summer dance craze, was a new type of entertainment.

Howard's one big happy family.

WELCOME DANCE

Summer had flown and the students, tanned and rested, attended the first dance of the year. The Welcome Dance, sponsored by the Student Council, held on September 14, was an enjoyable way for Sophomores to get acquainted with the upperclassmen. The dance spun off to a good start as the crowded gym rocked to the beat of the top-ten tunes.

ANNIVERSARY DANCE

The Anniversary Dance on November 9, planned by the faculty, celebrated Howard's 11th birthday. Decorations supplied by the Art Dept. were arranged by the Faculty Social Comm. The relaxed and pleasant atmosphere left everyone with heart warming memories.

A twist contest was one of the highlights of the evening.

The faculty enjoys a relaxing evening too.

We have nothing over our teachers when it comes to twisting.

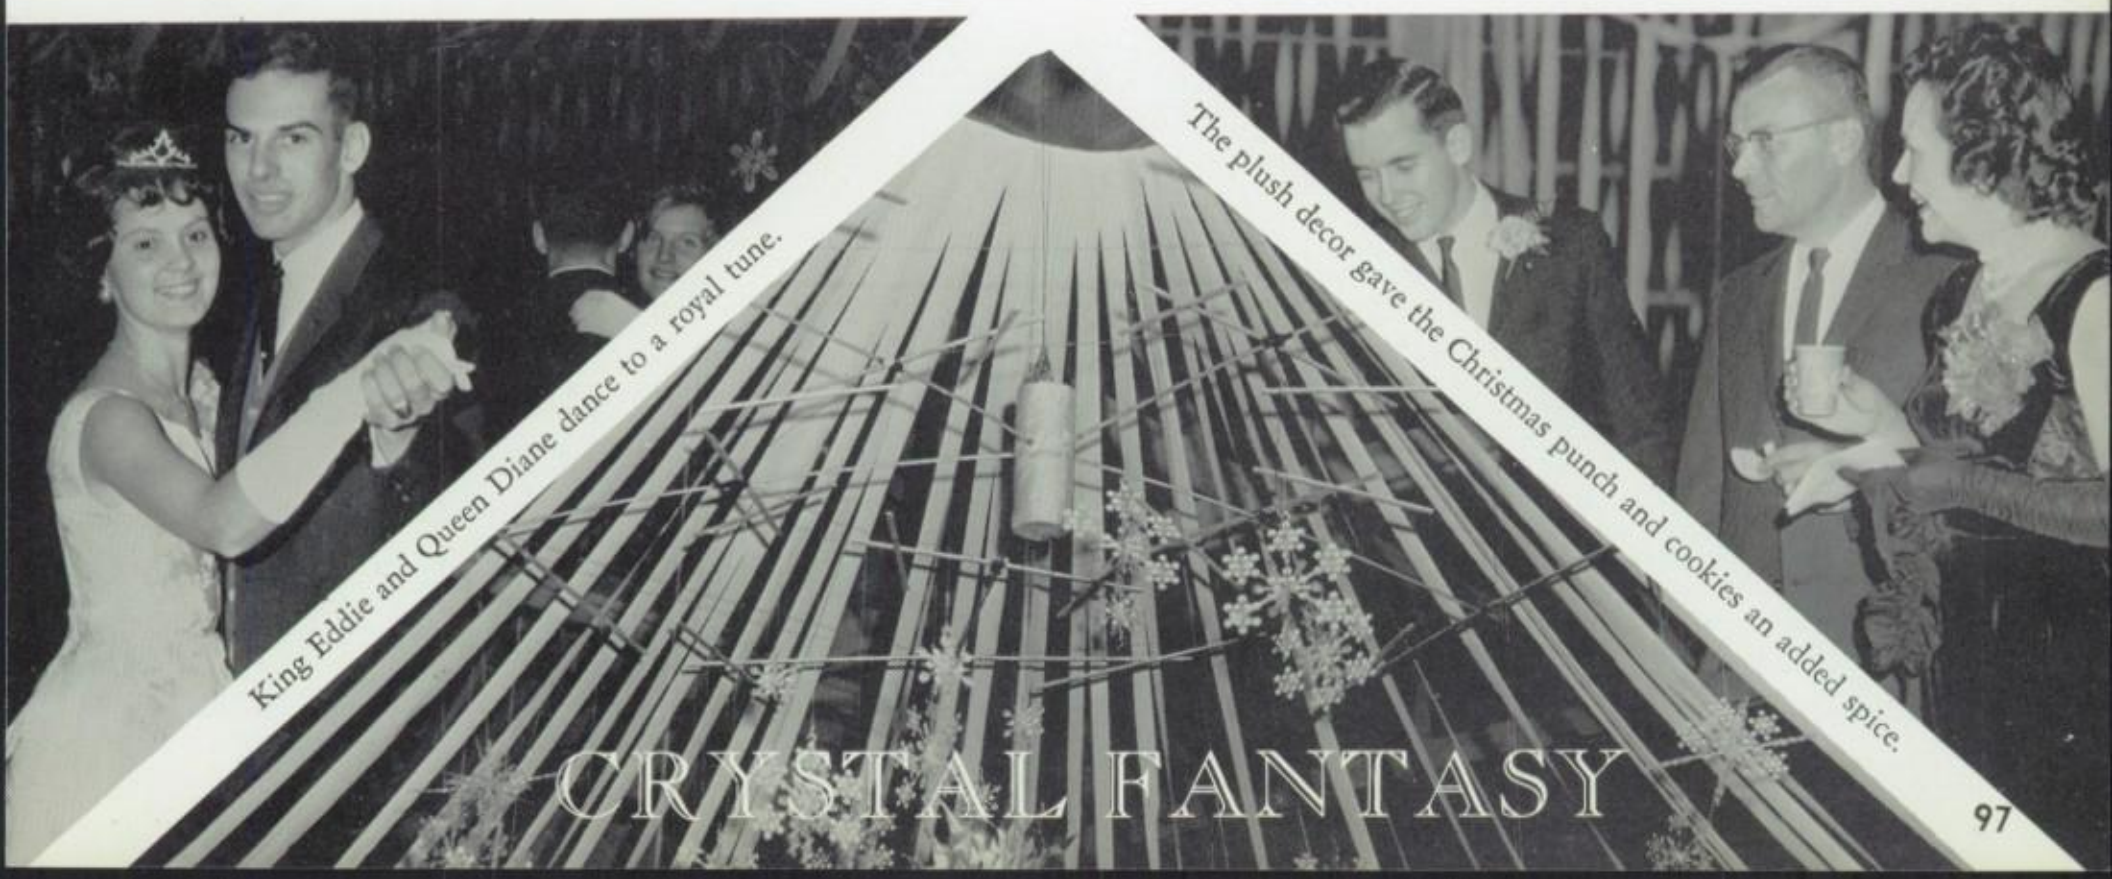
ANNIVERSARY DANCE

"The Sentries" supplied an evening of enjoyable music.

The Christmas Court dances beneath a crystal fantasy.

Anxiously the court and crownbearer await the crowning of the King and Queen.

"Crystal Fantasy" was the theme for this year's annual Christmas Dance sponsored by the Senior Class. The gym was appropriately decked in swirls of crystal snowflakes and turquoise blue streamers highlighted by the glitter of tiny Christmas trees and colored lights. Lively music afforded by the "Sentries" coincided with the gay spirits of dancing couples. The spotlight was focused on the mid-evening crowning of the royal couple: Queen, Diane Watkins; and King, Eddie Kasemeyer. As the clock struck midnight, partners left with memories of food, fun, and fantasy.



King Eddie and Queen Diane dance to a royal tune.

The plush decor gave the Christmas punch and cookies an added spice.

CRYSTAL FANTASY

SNOWBALL

Sadie Hawkins influenced the Howard High Chapter of the Future Nurses of America in their planning of the yearly Snowball held on January 25. Sparkling snowflakes perfectly symbolized the dance's theme, "Fantasy in Frost."

"Cheek to cheek!"

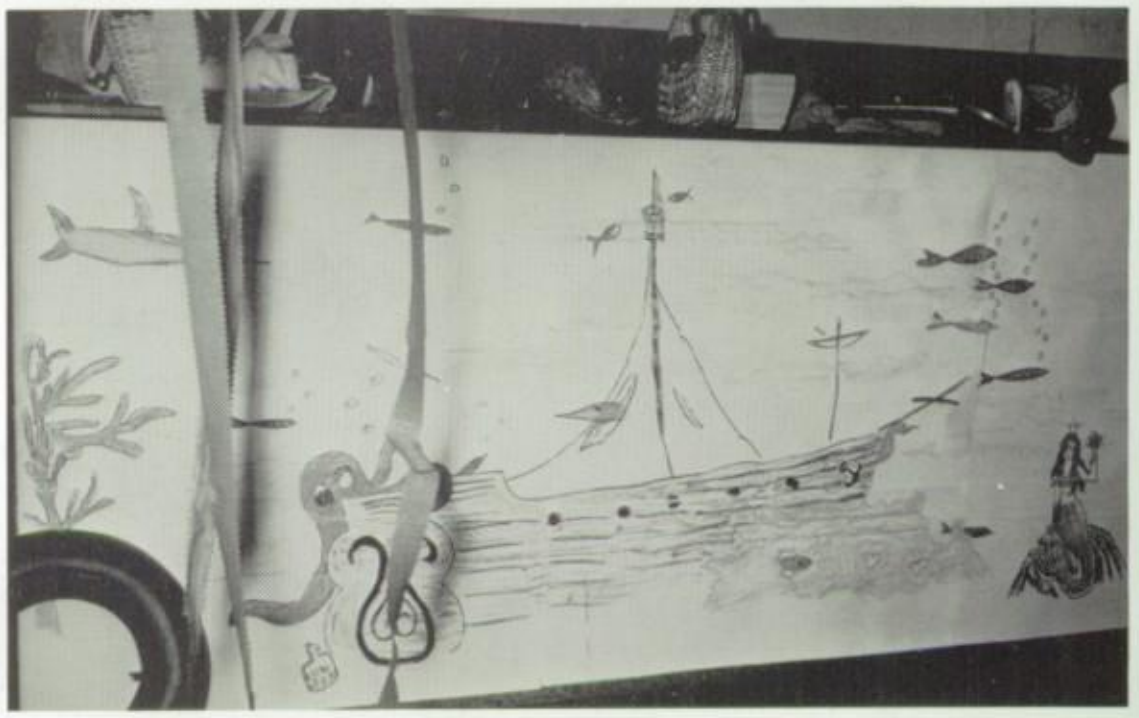
"Cool . . . !"

"Ready? One . . . two . . . !"

"Anyone for a tango?"

SHIPWRECK DANCE

A novelty at Howard this year was a Shipwreck Dance organized by the Future Teachers of America. The gym's nautical atmosphere added to the gaiety of the evening. A Mr. and Miss Irresistible contest was held, and Bill Morice and Margaret Seidler won the title due to their loquaciousness. The informal occasion proved to be an immense success.



"Davey Jones' Locker"

"No lifeboats?"

"Thirsty Landlubbers"

Backstage jitters.

SWEETHEART COURT: Linda Wiley, Bill Woods, Sharon Stevens, George Mitchell, Ellen Smith, Al Seivold, Linda O'Neill, Bob Curtis, Marylyn Lucas, Paul Mersinger, Donna Judge, Skip Krause, Shirley Goins, Bill Holden, Barbara DuPree, Mike Ellerman, Bonnie Bauman, Jimmy Blair.

A romantic atmosphere was created by the Junior Class for the annual Valentine Dance on February 15. Amidst red hearts and white streamers many gay couples danced to the soft music of the evening. King Gary and Queen Maggie, with their court, reigned over this unforgettable festivity.

CUPID'S CHOICE
Queen: Maggie Carroll
King: Gary Prochaska

Love makes the world go round.

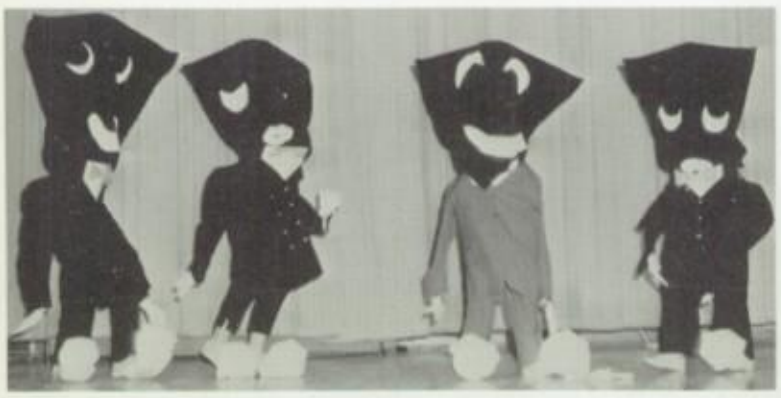
VARIETY SHOW

Highlighters, and headliners, spotlighters and soloists, commercials and combos, comedians and culprits, swingers and singers, dancers, deaners, and dare devils all got together for the annual variety show sponsored by the F.N.A. The gym was filled to capacity. This diversity of entertainment met the desires of young and old:



FACULTY-VARSITY GAME

And the Lions came charging through.

What a dunker!

Willie Sue's obstacle course.

The senior players and their fathers were honored by the cheerleaders.

Mr. Jones and Coach Marshall were also honored before the game.

Mrs. Corbin freely gives of her time.

The spring play "Meet Me in St. Louis" was performed for the public after many grueling hours of practice. The Dramatics class did a commendable job.

Color Guard members: Dick Brown, George Burtorf, Cliff Campen, and Larry Hogue.

BAND CONCERT

A Band Concert was held for the public.

The great improvement of the band over the year was easily evident at the Spring Concert.

COLOR GUARD

FIELD

Wait till he finds out that's quicksand.

The battleground was wet and so soggy; the spectators were damp and chilled; but the combatants still had fire in their eyes. The battle taking place was field day, the highlight of the inter-class struggles that had been waged all winter long. Passions were strong and tempers were short, and they were united in a strong desire to win. On no other occasion during the year did so many contribute to the success of an activity.

Her measurements? You're kiddin'!

SOPHOMORE PARTY

Honest! I didn't do it!

There's always a big gang around the refreshment table.

The annual sophomore party was held by the class of 1965 in the gymnasium at Howard in early May. The party—the only affair solely for sophomores and their dates—featured the latest in hi-fi music.

Oh! that younger generation.

Oh, my aching feet!

"Cuddle up a little closer."

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Juniors bade "Sayonara" to the Class of '63 at the Junior-Senior Prom on May 31. The gym was converted into a beautiful Oriental fantasy land of flowers, cherry blossoms, and soft music. The court was presented and John Balderson and Sandi Capitano were the royal couple of the evening. At the stroke of twelve the dance was over but prom-goers will never forget this perfect evening.

Mr. Jones honors a lovely queen and a proud king.

Anxiously the crowd awaits the entrance of the court.

Paul Raymond and his "Baltimore Colt" orchestra provided the music for a memorable evening.

Gowns of all styles floated across the dance floor.

Stepping over the bridge into an Oriental fantasy land.

More admire the court as they enter.

J.B.

A lovely garden and a pond with real fish fascinates all.

An obvious fact—everyone enjoyed himself.

It was a hard job but we made it.

A cloudburst of balloons set everyone scampering for his fortune.

Happy? Sad? Contented? Glad?

SPORTS

Howard's athletic program highlights the extra-curricular activities of the year. We are especially proud of our new lights and improved field. The teams this year have certainly done justice to Howard's good name.

The football season was a cold, rainy one this year. Cheerleaders were seen wearing blue legotards, plastic rain capes, white gloves, jackets, and ear muffs highlighted by rosy cheeks. The year 1962-1963 marked Howard's finest efforts on the cinder paths. In compiling their outstanding season the track men learned to give and then give again in order to win. While the blue jerseys of Howard were flashing across the finish line several records were set:

Mile Relay 3:47.3
Wolbert—Boone—Phillips—Tharp
440 Relay 46.8
DeGrange—Soslau—Nazelrod—Tilgner

Jimmy Craumer, Earl Strain, Barry Kolleck, Pete Cugle, Ronnie Hnat.

Don't let 'em bluff ya!

Wonder who's gonna win?

FIELD EVENTS

The field events often proved Howard's forte at many of the meets. Precision, strength, and constant practice made them prime contenders for the honors wherever they went.

Again old records fell to the new:

Broad Jump	R. Tilgner	22' 4"
Shot Put	R. Green	47' 1"
Discus	K. White	138'11"

Maybe next time, Dave

Kenny Stewart, Ronnie Tilgner Petie Cugle, Bob Curtis

Good form, Ken

END OF A PERFECT DAY

CLASS NIGHT

The traditional Class Night at Peter Pan Inn was a happy and memorable occasion again this year. The students, who had been admonished to be prompt, chuckled when during the night Mr. Jones admitted that he had driven a little fast to insure getting there on time himself and had been startled to pass "some of his youngsters."

"Words of nostalgia"—Mr. Jones.

"A token of our appreciation, Mr. Fisher!"

"A word of welcome!"

"Prophetic?"

"Merry hearts—fond memories!"

"Fountain of Youth!"

Each Senior received a small gift as he entered the lovely dining room. Following the savory steak dinner and the drawing of door prizes, Neal Meyer, the very able Senior Class President, greeted his classmates and their guests and then the faculty, to whom he presented gifts. Next the prophetic voices of Chet Fernly and David Finkly gave a news report of the happenings twenty years from now. (Of course, it intimately involved the illustrious Class of 1963.)

"Could this be Mr. Jones' spot!"

"I wish I were . . . I wish I might . . ."

Later while the room was being prepared for dancing, the seniors dispersed themselves in the gorgeous garden to seek the location of Mr. Jones' "spot upon which the moon radiantly beams."

"Let's sit this one out."

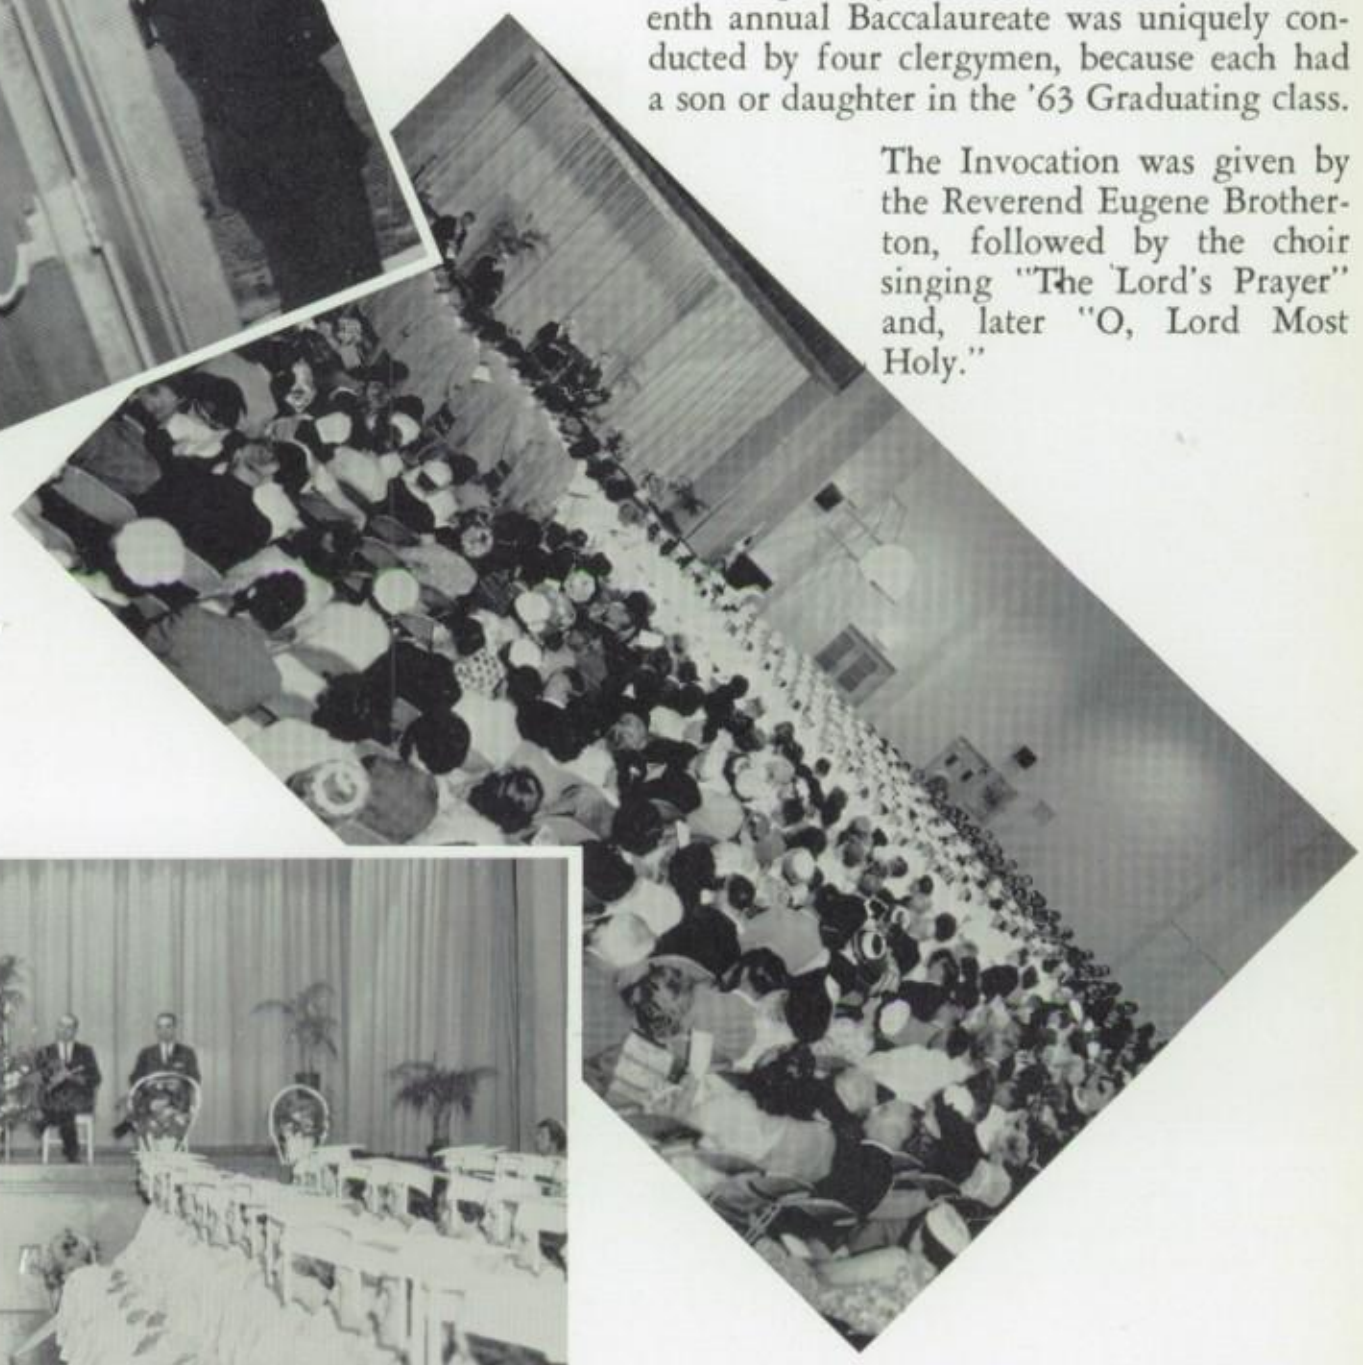
"Is it that late?"

BACCALAUREATE

The Seniors filed sedately into the gym the Sunday before Graduation for a religious service specially directed to them. The eleventh annual Baccalaureate was uniquely conducted by four clergymen, because each had a son or daughter in the '63 Graduating class.

The Invocation was given by the Reverend Eugene Brotherton, followed by the choir singing "The Lord's Prayer" and, later "O, Lord Most Holy."

"One of our treasured moments"



"Our Hallowed Hour"

Guest Ministers: Reverend Eugene Brotherton, Reverend J. K. Barner, Reverend Robert A. Gourlay, and Reverend Harold Ira Conley.

"United We Stand"

"Two by Two"

The reading of the scripture was presented by the Reverend J. K. Barner. The Reverend Robert A. Gourlay preached the sermon, and the Reverend Harold Ira Conley closed the program with the Benediction.

"Practice Makes Perfect"

June 13 marked the attainment of a goal formed early in life by 215 young people—graduation from high school. The much-practiced-for ceremony commenced with the Invocation by the Reverend J. Edward Garns and then the Salutatory Address by Diane Blankenship.

"Best on the first go round"

"Reverend, you go first!"

The Class of 1963 gravely sang their song, much improved since Class Night. Congressman Richard E. Lankford delivered the graduation address. He was well received by the Seniors as well as the audience. The climax came when the Seniors finally received their hard earned diplomas and became Graduates. Mr. Yingling relinquished his privilege of awarding the diplomas to Mr. Fred Schoenbrodt, the new member of the Board of Education.

"Sage advice, Tim!"

"The Youth of Today"

"The Hope of Tomorrow."

Experiencing confused feelings of sorrow and happiness, some members of the largest class to graduate from Howard even forgot to turn their rings. Mr. Jones announced the winners of awards and scholarships. He was pleased to state that scholarship winners boosted the total amount of Howard's scholarships over the half million dollar level. Tim Wolbert gave the Valedictory Address, followed by the Graduates' singing of the Alma Mater for the last time as a group.

The senior song becomes meaningful as the Seniors solemnly sing it for the last time.

Graduation terminates with both smiles and tears.

Pinch me . . . I can't believe it.

The Reverend John Cummings ended the graduation program with the Benediction. As the last of the graduates proudly marched out of the gym to the well-known tune of "Pomp and Circumstance," the audience noticed something peculiar about the Class of '63. They had more boys than girls!

Miss Lang is faithful with her smelling salts.

Beware of Rule #16.
